

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE September 4, 2007

Welcome To SPU, Winner Of 20 In A Row Volleyball Opens GNAC Play With 3-Match Home Stand

Home, sweet Brougham. Following a couple weeks in California, the Seattle Pacific University volleyball team now comes home to roost. The Falcons (5-3) host crosstown rival Seattle University (3-5) to commence Great Northwest Athletic Conference play Thursday night (Sept. 6). League newcomer Montana State Billings (6-2) arrives Saturday (Sept. 8) and the home stand concludes Sept. 15 against Northwest Nazarene.

Carry forward? Precious few current GNAC players have tasted success in Brougham Pavilion, and SPU personnel would like to keep it that way. The Falcons have won their last 20 home conference matches, dating back to Oct. 16, 2004, and they have prevailed in 18 in a row overall. In 2006, only two visitors managed to take a single game, and during 20 straight GNAC home wins, 16 have been sweeps.

Since when is life fair? Despite the fact that two of the three losses are to the nation's top two teams, Seattle Pacific was dropped from the national rankings this week. Go figure. The Falcons, who had been 20th in the preseason, own a victory over No. 9 UC San Diego and their defeats were to No. 1 Cal State San Bernardino (away) and No. 2 Tampa (neutral). With 76 votes, SPU is nine shy of the No. 25 team in the CSTV/AVCA coaches poll.

Number 1 for good reason. Returning home, Alyssa Given (Sr., 5-10, Salinas, Ca./Notre Dame) had quite a homecoming at the Otter Invitational. Given posted some good numbers versus stiff competition, with her two best performances coming in wins over Notre Dame de Namur and host Cal State Monterey Bay. After leading the way with 16 kills in a loss to Saginaw Valley State, Given served a career-high eight aces against the Otters. She totaled 20 kills in the five-set win over the Argonauts and accumulated 30 in the losses. She leads the conference in service aces (0.97) and is No. 2 in kills (4.20).

A broken record. Going into last week Given needed nine more aces for the school's career record. Ordinarily that might require a week or two. She accomplished it in about five hours. While serving a run of 10 consecutive points versus Cal State Monterey Bay, she eclipsed Kellie Ryan's long-standing (1988-91) sum of 142. Given's tally to date is 148. The eight aces in a single matches rates No. 2 all-time. Next on the horizon for Given is the career kills mark of 1249. She has 1119, and needs 23 to move into No. 2.

(Fr., Bellflower, Ca./Los Alamitos) served seven aces and made 27 digs. Courtney Alberi (Fr., Castaic, Ca./Valencia), who also made her debut within driving distance of her hometown, led the club in attacking percentage (.333) and Sarah Risser (Fr., Santa Barbara, Ca./Dos Pueblos), yet another Californian, contributed 17 kills and four blocks.

In a groove. Of course, not everything was rosy. Flexing its muscles at home, Cal State San Bernardino dealt SPU a season-opening sweep for the second year in a row. Rejuvenated by the UCSD match, the Falcons won four-set contests with Fort Lewis and Cal State Dominguez Hills, the former atoning for one of two regular-season losses in '06. Seattle Pacific out-blocked the Toros 14-6 and hit .226 against the Skyhawks.

Serving up some 'D.' In the three wins, the difference was most certainly Seattle Pacific's serve/receive and net games. The Falcons nearly doubled the number of aces served by their foes (38-20) and enjoyed a nearly identical (38-20.5) advantage in blocks. Angie Wodrich (Sr., Richland, Wa.) and Robin De Jong (So., Goleta, Ca./Dos Pueblos) totaled career-highs of 10 and nine blocks, respectively, against UC San Diego. Wodrich added another nine and Rachel Biornstad (Sr., Kent, Wa./Kentlake) eight in the CSDH match. For the first four matches, Wodrich is averaging 1.38 blocks, nearly double her '06 season average.

Quick sets. Given needs two more aces to become No. 3 on the school's career list, and she's just nine behind the all-time record of 142. Given is 190 kills away from the career mark of 1249. She moved into No. 4 last week...SPU hit .183 and, after CSSB opened with a clip of .214, held opponents to an average of .145. Biornstad hit .250 on the attack...The Falcons played without injured middle Jessica Bettencourt (South Lake Tahoe, Ca.). She may be cleared to play this weekend.

Opponent/series notes. This will be the first meetings with Tampa, Notre Dame de Namur, Saginaw Valley State and Cal State Monterey Bay. Saginaw swept three opponents, including Alaska Anchorage of the GNAC. Tampa fell at home to NAIA power Cal Baptist but won its next two. Notre Dame faced four CCAA teams, beating Humboldt State. Monterey Bay faced stiff opposition in Hawaii, winning three games in four matches.

SPU Coaches. Chris Johnson took the Falcons to their first conference championships, their highest national rankings and NCAA tournament berths in his first two seasons as head coach, and was twice voted GNAC co-coach of the year. Johnson was the team's top assistant in 2004, and earlier served as an assistant at NAIA powerhouse Westmont from 2001-03. Former Central Washington star Crystal Ames joins the staff, which includes Johnny Lai and Jill Spratt.

What were they thinking? Less than a month ago, the GNAC coaches predicted their order of finish, but going into this week the standings bear little resemblance to that poll. Western Washington got the slight nod over SPU in the preseason, and both teams scheduled difficult opponents in the early going. As a consequence, the Falcons and Vikings are in the middle of the standings while Northwest Nazarene (picked sixth), Billings (fourth) and Alaska Fairbanks (eighth) share the best record at 6-2. Central Washington, which has finished no worse than third the past four seasons, is 1-7.

A fine cast. Given was not alone in her solid outings. Angie Wodrich (Sr., 5-10, Richland, Wa./Richland) had a particularly strong performance against Notre Dame de Namur, matching her career high with 23 kills (a sparkling .420 percentage) and adding three aces. Setter Joelle Perez (Fr., 5-9, Vancouver, Wa./Heritage) finished with 63 assists over the five games, and Courtney Alberi (Fr., 5-11, Castaic, Ca./Valencia) had eight kills and two blocks vs. Monterey Bay and 11 kills vs. NDN. U.

Quick sets. The Falcons were out-blocked 16-7.5 in their first three matches last week before getting the edge on NDN. U., 10-5...Tampa hit a collective .330 in their win. Given hit a season-high .385 with 14 kills in that match...Strangely, the team's season-best attack percentage (.233) came in the loss to Saginaw...SPU has served at least 12 aces in each of its victories...Perez is third in GNAC assists (10.10), libero Torii Mount (Jr., Gresham, Or./Gresham) fifth in digs (4.03) and Wodrich is eighth in blocking (1.00). Teamwise, the Falcons lead in services aces (2.70). They are third in opponent hitting (.152), fourth in offensive percentage (.189) and fifth in blocking (2.12)...Jessica Bettencourt (So., South Lake Tahoe, Ca.) saw her first action at Seaside last week after missing the opening week due to injury. Bettencourt appeared in 11 games, hitting .361 and averaging 1.64 kills and 0.45 blocks.

Opponent/series notes. Seattle University extended No. 19 Chico State to five games in the first week. The Redhawks were picked fifth in the GNAC preseason poll. They lead the league in digs. SPU leads the series 11-5 with wins in each of the last four meetings...Montana State Billings has won four straight going into Thursday's match at Northwest Nazarene. The Yellowjackets' Alecia Cazemier leads the GNAC in kills (4.40) and is No. 3 in blocks (1.13) while hitting .267. MSUB tops the conference in blocking and is third in serving. The Falcons have won 16 of 18 meetings, including a five-set affair last season.

Tickets, please. Ticket prices for all SPU regular season home matches are $5 for general admission, with students and senior citizens $3. Group and team rates are available by phoning (206) 281-2085 in advance.
