

Gloria Globetrotter

1234 Goglobal Lane
Small World, WA 02134

gglobe@spu.edu
206.123.1234

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Extensive international travel and cross cultural experience, basic conversational Swahili
- Over two years of experience working with non-profit organizations in positions of increasing responsibility
- Well-developed communication skills include writing and presentation experience
- Event planning, fund-raising and development skills

EDUCATION:

Seattle Pacific University, Seattle, WA

Global Development Studies Major, Economics Minor; Anticipated graduation: June 2012

GPA 3.75

Seattle Pacific University President's Scholarship Recipient

Coursework: Intro to Global Development, Microfinance, Community Economic Development

Seattle Central Community College, Seattle, WA, Winter 2011

Coursework: Global Health

Uganda Christian University, Mukano, Uganda, Fall 2010

Uganda Studies Program

Coursework: Basic conversational Swahili, Seminar on History of Uganda

Research report: Economic Development of Mukano

RELATED EXPERIENCE:

To the Streets, Justice and Compassion Intern, Seattle, WA, Fall 2012 - present

- Implemented cost effective ways to obtain resources for distribution to homeless community
- Formulated vision and direction with the organization's Board for future programming
- Directed volunteers; developed detailed instructions for future volunteers
- Researched costs and locations for a future drop-in center that is currently operating

International Justice Mission Club, Vice President, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle, WA, Winter 2012

- Set and achieved quarterly goals for participants, including a speaker series
- Hosted a campus-wide movie screening for over 150 students
- Organized a student trip to Art Auction Benefit by Seattle Against Slavery
- Coordinated event, "Experiencing Injustice" and communicated follow-up activities for students

Social Venture Plan Competition, Participant, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle, WA, Spring 2011

- Coordinated team that developed a business plan for marketing and selling goods made by assault victims in Nigeria
- Developed and delivered presentation to panel of judges, including local business owners
- Received Honorable Mention

World Relief, Development Intern, Seattle WA, 2009

- Managed donor information using non-profit database program
- Created marketing materials for successful donor campaign
- Assisted with writing and editing grant proposals

World Affairs Council, Intern, Seattle, WA, 2008

- Contacted speakers and coordinated speaker events, including registration
- Planned monthly events for Young Professionals Networking Group

Extensive International Travel, 2006 - 2010

Uganda, Chile, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, United Kingdom, Brazil

- Enhanced understanding of cultural differences and increased language skills
- Adapted quickly to diverse cultures and effectively managed day-to-day activities

Gloria Globetrotter

1234 Goglobal Lane
Small World, WA 02134

gglobe@spu.edu
206.123.1234