

Seattle Pacific University – Wesley / Dravus Apartments

The design of the Wesley and Dravus Apartments incorporates the latest trends in student on campus apartment living. The two twin buildings stand back to back one on West Cremona Street and one on West Dravus Street. The apartments are fully furnished having single and double occupancy rooms. Other features include card access entry, cable TV, SPU technology and phone service. Some covered controlled access parking is available.

Building Facts:

- The Wesley and Dravus Apartments have four floors each and are 41,498 square feet.
- The total cost was $7,931,303 or $191 per square foot.
- Fourteen months required for construction

Building Features:

- 40 spacious apartments in two buildings (133 beds)
- One, three and four bedroom apartments
- Single room option available
- Kitchens equipped with stoves, refrigerators, dishwashers and microwaves
- Furnished living room and bedrooms
- Full sized washer and dryer in every apartment
- SPU technology is provided in kitchen, bedrooms & living room
- Indoor bike storage
- 3,752 square feet (35 stalls) of secure, on grade parking in each structure