I understand and agree that when my registration form is accepted by Registration, I have obligated myself to pay for the courses and all other charges related to this registration. I understand that if I have delinquent financial obligations or if any financial obligation is adjudged to be discharged, I will not be permitted to register or attend classes for subsequent quarters or order official transcripts until such obligations have been satisfied. If I default on my financial obligations, I agree to pay all costs and expenses incurred by the University in the collection of any sums due under this registration, including, but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees, collection costs and court costs. If these registration fees are sent out for collection by an outside collection agency or debt collector, the University may add a collection fee of at least one-third (1/3) and as much as double the principal and interest due on the note and may disclose my default and other relevant information to credit bureau organizations. This note shall be governed by the laws of the state of Washington.

PLEASE NOTE: There is an additional tuition charge for each additional credit hour over 18 (excluding Summer). (If you are enrolling in free 19th credits, this charge is waived).

If I decide to cancel my registration, I must do so through the options available (i.e. in writing to Student Academic Services or via the World Wide Web). As specified in the Undergraduate Catalog or Graduate Catalog, I understand that the date I officially withdraw will determine the amount of refund, if any, I will receive.

I understand SPU policy states that admitted undergraduate and post-baccalaureate students may take no more than 18 credits per quarter; admitted graduate students may take no more than 15 credits per quarter; and that non-admitted students may take no more than 20 credits per quarter. I also understand that these include all credits taken at other institutions, and that any credits taken in excess of these limits will be disallowed.

I understand SPU's academic and graduation requirements as they apply to me, and I assume responsibility for the selection of the course(s) for which I may register.

Policies and other matters are covered in detail in the Undergraduate Catalog or Graduate Catalog, which is available online.
