How did you hear about Seattle Pacific University?

What influenced your decision to apply for graduate study at Seattle Pacific University?

DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Seattle Pacific University reserves the right to select students on the basis of academic performance and personal qualifications. It is the policy of SPU not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in admission to its programs or activities.

INSTITUTIONAL EXPECTATIONS

Seattle Pacific University is an academic, social and Christian community with expectations that serve as guidelines for membership in the community. These expectations include a standard of personal and moral integrity and social conscience derived from the University's Christian commitment. Acknowledging that not all students share the University's Christian commitments, out of respect for community standards, all graduate students are required to abstain from alcohol, drugs and tobacco, illegal, immoral or disruptive activities while on campus or while involved in University-related activities.
