

Curriculum Vita
William K. Collins
564 N.E. Ravenna Blvd.
Seattle, Washington, 98115
Tel: (206) 527-2266 x112

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Therapist

marriage and family therapy, pre-marital counseling, personal therapy

Supervisor

supervision of marital and family therapy

Educator

instruction and supervision; clinical training

Administrator

Director: Marriage and Family Therapy Training Center, Samaritan Center of Puget Sound; Director The Clinic at Samaritan Center, 1994 -- present

Director, Training and Operations, Samaritan Center of Puget Sound, 9/2000 to 10/2005

Vice-President, Training and Operations, Samaritan Center of Puget Sound, 10/2005 to present

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Clinical member, American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, 1985 - present

Approved Supervisor, American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, 1987 - present

Site Visitor, Commission On Accreditation Marriage and Family Therapy Education, 1996 - present

Treasurer, Washington Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, 1993-1999

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Bachelor of Science, 1966: Stonehill College, major in physical science - magna cum laude

Ph. D., 1974: University of Notre Dame, experimental nuclear physics

Master of Arts, 1977: University of Notre Dame, history and philosophy of science

Certificate of Completion, 1981: Presbyterian Counseling Service, clinical training in marriage and family therapy

Master of Science, 1987: Seattle Pacific University, marriage and family therapy

ACADEMIC HONORS AND AWARDS

The Committee on the History of the University of Notre Dame Prize, 1977, for the best historical study of any aspect of Notre Dame life

Harvard University: Prize Fellow in Mathematics and Science Education, 1966

Highest scholastic average; highest average in science and philosophy, Stonehill College, 1966

WORK EXPERIENCE

MFT Training Center at Samaritan Center of Puget Sound

Director, MFT training center, 1986 -- present; Clinic 1994 -- present conference organizer, 1994 -- present

clinical supervisor, MFT training program, 1985-2001

faculty, MFT training program, 1982-2001

Adjunct Faculty, Seattle Pacific University, with Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy, 1982-1993, 1999-

Adjunct Faculty, Seattle University, 1999-2001

Instructor in Doctor of Ministry Program, San Francisco Theological Seminary, 1986

Staff, Samaritan Center of Puget Sound, 1981 - present

Clinical Director, February, 1996 - June, 1997

Certified/Licensed MFT (Washington State Licensed LF00000997 since 7/22/01; Certified #MF20000016 since 3/22/89)

Young adult minister, Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle, 1979-1982

Assistant Professor,

University of Portland, 1976-1979: Department of Physical and Life Sciences

Assistant Professor,

Stonehill College, 1975-1976: Department of Chemistry

Graduate Student and Instructor,

University of Notre Dame, 1966-1975; Humanities Seminar, 1973-1975

Teacher, Moderator,

Notre Dame High School, 1967-1969

Msgr. Coyle High School, 1966-67

BORN: 1944

HEALTH: Excellent

Married: Kathryn Carrigan Collins, 1982

Children: Sheila, 1984, Katie, 1986