Evidence of Financial Support

U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires that Seattle Pacific University verify the financial resources of all international students. To be eligible for the F-1 student visa status, applicants must work with their financial sponsor to demonstrate sufficient financial resources that meet or exceed the estimated educational and living expenses. Please note the estimated costs listed on the back of this form are for one academic year (three quarters). Adequate documented financial support is required for admission decisions and issuance of the Form I-20.

Sponsor's Information (to be completed by the financial sponsor or student if self-supporting)

This is to certify that I, _____ (sponsor's name), will assume financial responsibility, and will pay to Seattle Pacific University on demand, up to $43,453 (U.S) to satisfy the educational expenses and support of _____ (student's name) for the first academic year. Funding is to include tuition, living expenses, books, supplies, and health insurance as indicated on the back of this form. In addition, I assume financial responsibility in the amount of $5,000 (U.S.) for each dependent listed on this form that will be living with the student.

Bank Statement

In addition to the signature above, the financial sponsor must mail a current bank statement or letter from an authorized bank official on bank stationery to document funds currently available for the first year of study. This document must be written in English and the funds must be described in U.S. dollars. All documents must be less than six months old. Please clearly label the applicant's name on the document and mail directly to the address below.

What is an acceptable bank statement?

Acceptable:

- An original bank statement in the sponsor's name, which states the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. * It is highly recommended that most of your financial support come from your home country, as this is important for getting your student visa. *The bank statement should be sent to SPU directly from the bank in a sealed envelope.
- A letter sent directly from the financial sponsor's bank that describes the type of account, the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. The letter should include the bank stamp or seal.

Not acceptable:

- Photocopies or faxes of bank letters or bank statements.
- A bank letter indicating "good" customer or "adequate funds," and not indicating a current total account balance.
