Evidence of Financial Support

U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires that Seattle Pacific University verify the financial resources of all international students. To be eligible for the F-1 student visa status, applicants must work with their financial sponsor to demonstrate sufficient financial resources that meet or exceed the estimated educational and living expenses. Please note the estimated costs listed on the back of this form are for one academic year (three quarters). Adequate documented financial support is required for admission decisions and issuance of the Form I-20.

Bank Statement

In addition to the signature above, the financial sponsor must mail a current bank statement or letter from an authorized bank official on bank stationery to document funds currently available for the first year of study. This document must be written in English and the funds must be described in U.S. dollars. All documents must be less than six months old. Please clearly label the applicant's name on the document and mail directly to the address below.

What is an acceptable bank statement?

Acceptable:

- An original bank statement in the sponsor's name, which states the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. It is highly recommended that most of your financial support come from your home country, as this is important for getting your student visa. The bank statement should be sent to SPU directly from the bank in a sealed envelope.
- A letter sent directly from the financial sponsor's bank that describes the type of account, the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. The letter should include the bank stamp or seal.
- An official letter of guarantee from your government or agency indicating your scholarship amount in U.S. dollars. The letter should be signed and dated and the date of the letter must not be more than six months old.

Not acceptable:

- Photocopies or faxes of bank letters or bank statements.
- A bank letter indicating "good" customer or "adequate funds," and not indicating a current total account balance.

2012–13 Estimated Annual Costs

All costs are listed in U.S. dollars and assume full-time enrollment for a nine-month academic year.

Undergraduate Tuition and Fees (based on 45 credit hours per year)	$31,856
Room and Board	$ 9,535
Miscellaneous Personal Expenses, Books, and Supplies	$ 3,705
Health Insurance *	$ 950
2011–12 Estimated Annual Costs	$46,094

* Required unless proof of alternate insurance is provided within the first 10 days of the quarter.

 Anticipated annual increase in tuition and living costs of approximately 5 percent is applied to the 2011-12 total cost in order to arrive at this estimate. Actual total cost may be different.
