

Engaging the culture, changing the world®

Seattle Pacific
UNIVERSITY

Capitalism and Poverty Distinguished Guest Series

Al Erisman, executive-in-residence with SPU's School of Business and Economics (SBE), and Rob Smith, founder and president of EarthWise Ventures, will debate the topic, "Does Capitalism Need to be Fixed?" The event takes place at 7 p.m. on Friday, January 27, in the Medical Teams International office (Redmond, WA). Reserve your spot today. Doors open at 6 p.m., allowing guests to view "Real. Life." - an exhibit portraying the effects of disaster, conflict, and poverty on children.

SPU Hosts Gloria Nelund, Top Leader in International Asset Management

SBE and CIB are pleased to host Gloria Nelund on February 9 as our guest speaker for "Business as a Calling" day. Ms. Nelund spent 30 years on Wall Street as an executive in the international asset management industry, working most recently as CEO of Deutsche Bank's $50 billion North America Private

Wealth Management division. She went on to co-found

Events & Announcements

Save the dates:

- On January 26, the CIB hosts Kiros Seattle, a breakfast gathering for Christians in the marketplace, meeting 7:30-9 a.m. in the SPU Library Seminar Room. International finance veteran Craig Wainscott will be our featured speaker. Register today.
- On February 10, the CIB co-hosts Gloria Nelund at Kiros Bellevue. She will speak on "Finding Balance for Life in the Fast Lane" at the breakfast gathering (7-8:30 a.m.) at Maggiano's. Register today.
- February 23, CIB hosts a Kiros Seattle breakfast gathering (7:30-9 a.m.) in the Library Seminar Room on the SPU campus. Details to follow.

CIB at Urbana '12

TriLinc Global, a private investment company dedicated to creating impact investment products that provide significant capital to the "missing middle" (established small to medium sized businesses) in stable, emerging markets to help address some of the world's urgent needs.

During her visit, the CIB will gather senior leaders from the financial services sector for a luncheon with Ms. Nelund to discuss banking and economic reform. That evening, Ms. Nelund will speak on "Faith, Gender, Work: Lessons From My Career" at Westminster Chapel (Bellevue, WA) hosted by Women in the Workplace. Registration (near bottom of page) for the event (6:30-8:30 p.m.) includes a catered dinner.

Work/Faith Training Event for Pastors

In conjunction with the Theology of Work Project, the CIB will host a conference for pastors and other equippers interested in learning more about the theological underpinnings and practical applications of Christian faith on work. The seminar will take place at Westminster Chapel (Bellevue, WA) on Wednesday, March 28, 2012. Consider attending and invite your pastor to join us. Contact Tom Lane to register or for additional information.

Technology Conference in June

On June 22-23, 2012, CIB will host a technology conference on the SPU campus titled, The New Technological Society: Rethinking the Christian Perspective on Technology for the 21st Century. The conference aims to blend academic perspectives with the practical experiences of those who design, build, and direct the implementation of new technologies. Be sure to save these dates.

Urbana '12, InterVarsity's 23rd Missions Conference in St. Louis, Missouri (Dec. 27-31, 2012) inspires and challenges thousands of students to follow God's call. CIB will lead the Business Changing the World 'track' for students who are preparing for a career in business.

Subscribe to Ethix

Interested in timely interviews and features on business, technology, and ethics issues? Visit and subscribe to our online journal Ethix. The current issue features an interview with Rome Hartman, executive producer of an NBC newsmagazine on television news in the digital age.

Publisher: Center for Integrity in Business

Website: spu.edu/cib | Feedback: cib@spu.edu

Unsubscribe

Copyright © 2012 Seattle Pacific University
3307 3rd Avenue West, Seattle, WA 98119-1997, U.S.A.